him and his advice to you according to you was to go downtown with it; is that right?

A. Correct.

Q. All right. So if you wanted to go above him, who would you go to next?

A. I don't remember who my Assistant Chief was but that would be my next.

Q. Assistant Chief?

A. That's correct.

Q. Who would be the next one above that?

A. At that time, it would be a Deputy Chief.

Q. And who would that be?

A. That would have been Roy Waters.

Q. Okay. Chief Waters pretty much had an open door policy. Anybody that wanted to talk to him about anything?

A. I don't know if that was an official open door policy, but I mean I went in there and talked to him without repercussions.

Q. You didn't ever have any problems going to talk to him if you had a concern about something, did you?

A. Well, that all depends on what it entailed.

Q. All right. But you said a minute ago this didn't affect you. What do you mean by that?

A. That means that I personally would not be
